Russian Empire style fireplace. The art forms of the Ancient World, reflecting the aura of brilliance and glory of the Roman emperors, are taken as a basis. It has all the grand splendor and the theatrical pathos of Empire style. The hard and cold style is softened by lively carvings and elegance of the carved details arrangement.

The fireplace is perfectly proportional. The decorative elements are hand-carved at relatively low relief (8-9 mm), and, thanks to the carver's skill, such amazing and fascinating results are achieved. The Empire style attributes, namely, the legionary symbols, shields and swords, are compactly friezed with motifs of laurel leaves, rosaces of lyres and swords.

Fireplace cost is on demand.
